

- 1) After accompanying Giada and Marco to kindergarten, I walk towards the office. My working hours are from 9am to 5pm with a one hour lunch break. Around 1pm I meet with colleagues to have lunch and take a relaxing walk.

- 2) My name is Roberto and I work in a bank. From Monday to Friday, the days I work, I always wake up at dawn and go to the farm park for a run with my dog, Zora. I like to keep fit.

- 3) As soon as I wake up I take a shower and get dressed. At 7.30 I'm already at the bar downstairs with my usual cappuccino and cream croissant. I start work at 8:00 and then at 1:00 I go to lunch with my colleagues. At 6pm I finish work and go home.

- 4) On Friday evening I go to the bar with colleagues and I happen to be late. I don't set the alarm on Saturday and Sunday, they are the days when I rest and I often go trekking with friends in the mountains.

- 5) My name is Sabrina, I'm 21 years old and I study computer science at the university of Milan. Every morning I wake up at 7.00, get up, take a shower, dry my hair and prepare a nice breakfast with coffee, milk, biscuits and jam.

6) My name is Federica, I attend university and very often I study in the library with my friend Lucia. I usually have lunch at the university canteen. In the afternoon I walk home because I really like walking and looking at shop windows.

7) On Saturday evening I carefully put on make-up, do my hair, dress in my favorite and fashionable clothes and go out with my friends to go to the cinema, to eat a pizza or sometimes to a disco.

8) I own two guitars: one electric and another acoustic. However, I rarely play the electric one, because the high volume disturbs my family and the neighborhood. On the walls of my room there are posters of my favorite bands

9) Maria is on holiday in Naples for the first time, and admires the gulf of the sea and the splendid monuments of the city. Maria is walking around Via Roma, arrives at Piazza Plebiscito, and thinks it is very beautiful.

10) Maria asks a gentleman for directions, sitting drinking coffee and eating a pizza - Excuse me, how can I get to the centre, passing through Spaccanapoli? - asks Maria, the Neapolitan gentleman looks at her and replies - He has to go back and walk the length of Via Roma

11) Our Osteria is located in Rome, in via Alessandro Pertini number 13, behind the Conad Supermarket. Once you reach the intersection with the statue of Galileo Galilei, just turn right and you are on the right road. We are on the left side of the road. We are closed on Mondays.

12) This weekend we decided to go into the woods and pitch tents to have a nice picnic with friends and spend a night under the stars. Since I have a car, it's my turn to go shopping

13) The place I love most in Rome is Villa Borghese: I could spend entire hours walking along the tree-lined avenues. To reach the park, we stop on Colle del Pincio: admiring the capital from above is always exciting, especially on sunny days.

14) Verona became famous thanks to Shakespeare who told the story of Romeo and Juliet and for this reason it is also called the city of love. Every year people from all over the world come to visit Juliet's house-museum to look out from the famous balcony

15) In Italy there is another city that is known as the city of love, Venice. The magical place is "The Bridge of Sighs" which can be admired from the Ponte della Paglia, a few steps from the majestic Piazza San Marco or you can pass under it during a gondola ride.

16) For those who want to learn Italian and also want to travel to small Italian villages, it is important to know that many different dialects are spoken in Italy. A large division can be made between the dialects spoken in Northern, Central and Southern Italy.

17) Christopher Columbus, having obtained money and ships, set sail from Palos de la Frontera on 3 August 1492 and, after months of navigation, touched land on 12 October. However, it is not India but a new continent: America, which is called the New World.

18) Christopher Columbus was born near Genoa in 1451 and already as a young man began to develop a passion for the sea and navigation. At the age of 14 he became a sailor and began traveling to numerous European countries. Passionate about geography and astronomy, he firmly maintained that the Earth is round.

19) Francesca and Maria meet right on time in front of the cinema entrance. The seats have already been booked. The middle row is the best, partly because it allows an optimal view, partly because you can easily stretch your legs

20) The two friends buy a generous portion of popcorn and also take a carbonated drink and a packet of sweets. They sit down in their chairs and are ready to enjoy the show offered by the big screen.

21) When I go to the centre, I like to observe the tourists looking around with amazed eyes and I always feel a bit on holiday too. Every now and then, I treat myself to an afternoon of shopping in the streets of the centre.

22) After work I sometimes spend time looking at the windows of luxury boutiques, while other times I shop in perfumeries and clothes shops. When I need to relax, I treat myself to a walk in the Roman Forum.

23) Yesterday I went with some friends of mine to eat at a restaurant where they cook excellent fish, but as you well know, I don't like fish, in fact I ordered a pizza and it was really very good.
